AN ATTACK ON MINERS.

Union Men Assault Nonunion Men Near Vincennes, Ind.

The Mine is Run on the Co-Operative Plan, and the Operators Claim That They Can Not Pay Union Wages.

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 20.—Four hundred nonunion miners from Washington, Cannellburg, Petersburg, Princeton and Montgomery arrived here on an early hour Tuesday morning, and at 5 o'clock made an attack upon the nonunion miners employed at the Prospect Hill mine near this city. As a result two men are fatally injured, and a half dozen more are seriously injured. The union miners formed at the union station and marched to the mine. Just as the men of the day shift were going on duty they were attacked, and received hostile treatment.

The union men asked for the foreman, William Scott, and when told that he was in bed, said: "All right, we will get him, and started after him, and in a short time pandemonium reigned. In the melee that followed, Mr. Scott and his family defended themselves as best they could, but were powerless.

Scott was badly beaten about the head and face, and W. P. Collins, an attorney at Washington, a brother-in-law of Scott, visiting there, sustained injuries that may prove fatal. He had a rib broken, and an eye badly injured. Henry Hensley, a miner, was also badly beaten by the nonunion men, and he had to be removed to the city where he could be given medical attention, and his injuries are such that he may die. Mrs. Scott was slapped in the face, and when she resented the attack, it is alleged that one of the men drew a gun and told her he would make short work of her if she persisted in her foolishness. Otis Scott, the 15-year-old son, was knocked down as was also Dottie, the 10-year-old daughter of Scott.

Others that suffered at the hands of the visitors were, Robert McDaniel, Posey Knight, John Scott and Kenner Mars. All are badly bruised about the head and face. It is said there that no word was spoken to Scott until he had been beaten.

In the fight the store was knocked over and a big hole was burned in the floor. Some of the miners, however, picked up the stove and extinguished the fire. The house was badly damaged. Almost every window was broken, and one of the doors was battered down.

Only 40 men are employed, and the mine is run on the co-operative plan and independently. The operators claim that they can not pay the union scale price, and that they pay the highest price possible, and in some instances pay more than scale prices. They claim to mine from 50 to 60 tons a day, and thereby are able to give a few men employment. There is great confusion over the attack, and another raid is expected. The union miners say they will force the mine to unite or close up, but one of the two must be done. Further trouble is anticipated.

HER HEALTH AFFECTED.

Another Letter Has Been Received From Miss Ellen M. Stone, the Abducted Missionary.

Sofia, Nov. 19.—Another letter has been received from Miss Ellen M. Stone. Her health has been somewhat affected by her confinement and had, but she expresses herself as still confident of ultimate release. A letter to Mr. Dickinson, diplomatic agent of the United States, at Sofia, replying to his proposals concerning a ransom, says the brigands will hold out for a figure very much above the sum at Mr. Dickinson's command.

Sofia, Nov. 20.—It is reported that Mr. Dickinson, the United States diplomatic agent here, has informed the government of Bulgaria that the abductors of Miss Ellen Stone and Miss Tishia, with their captives, are concealed in a defile of the Beloritz mountains, near Smotich, district of Dobruza, and has requested that troops be sent to surround the place and liberate the captives. Both Mr. Dickinson and the Bulgarian foreign office decline to confirm or deny this report. Nevertheless, it is believed that Mr. Dickinson, persuaded of the impossibility of coming to terms with the brigands, and relying upon his belief that they will not harm their captives if the troops are employed against them, has, after consulting with Washington authorities, decided upon this move.

Only eight bandits now guard Miss Stone, and some of these are known to sympathize with her. About a fortnight ago Mr. Dickinson approached the foreign office and proposed this plan, but his carrying out was abandoned because of the uncertainty of the location of the bandits.
